Jesse James House

After robbing a bank in Northfield, Minnesota, the infamous bank robber, Jesse James, and his family lived in a house on Fatherland St. in Edgefield for nearly four and a half years, from late 1876 until March, 1881, when a member of James' gang was captured in the White's Creek area of Davidson County. During his stay in East Nashville, James went by the name "J.D. Howard."
